

Phase Two

In Phase Two, we see something different in OS 43. Eleven planets turn different colors. In our fictionalized illustration, they start to heat up from their original calm state. These planets begin the change from OS 43 to OS 1.

The orange arrows provide the trail for the reader to see the connection between the various-hued planets. The adjustable planets do not move in that direction. These orbs first move upwards to the first ring (crown) before advancing downwards slightly left to the eleventh ring (knowledge). When they change position, these adjustable planets affect the others, which are below and to the right of them.

In OS 1, planets Nephi 1:1 and 1:2 group together and move out of orbit. This action starts the process. After looking through Phase Two, please turn to Phase Three to observe how it works.

Except for the Moroni 8:34, the colors of the planets match to the ones in the article “What If...”. The legend below shows the comparison of the colors to the verse numbers.
